Remi Villeroy was a mage from the Northern Kingdoms who had a small hand in what unfolded at The Summit at Loc Muinne. With witch hunters then set free to track down and kill any mages after the Lodge of Sorceresses were exposed, he went into hiding in Novigrad with his wife, Louisa, and his adoptive son.

Biography

In 1272, after the witch hunts broke out, he was hiding out in the Farcorners district. However, witch hunters eventually learned where he was and broke into the home, where they announced that he was officially being arrested and sentenced to death for helping the Lodge and addling soldiers' minds. While he did not deny this, Louisa tried to plead for her husband's life, but this only made the hunters move to arrest both adults.

If Geralt intervenes: Geralt, refusing to stand by and watch, stepped in and helped kill the hunters. Remi thanked the witcher and expressed he was going to give up doing any magic. After Geralt instructed him to find Triss, he agreed to do so and his family went into hiding elsewhere. Eventually, Triss organized a way for all the mages in the city to flee via a ship to Kovir and Remi and his family were able to safely escape Novigrad.
